FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jordan Aviation & Fly Olympic are delighted to announce the launch of their new direct scheduled services to Asmara, Eritrea [ASM] and Mogadishu, Somalia [MGQ] from both Stockholm - Arlanda [ARN] and London - Gatwick [LGW]

Flights will operate via Jordan Aviation's Hub and Home Base in Amman, Jordan in each direction.

All Traffic Right approvals have been applied for from the respective Authorities, and as Jordan Aviation is designated as the second flag carrier of Jordan, we are confident we will receive all the required diplomatic approvals.

The first flight is scheduled for Friday 6th June 2014, operating on a 2-class Boeing 767-200 EM.

The aircraft has Business Class at 40" seat pitch and a comfortable 31" seat pitch in economy with a refurbished interior, decorated in Fly Olympic livery, blue leather seats and new carpets.

The airline has a strong focus on high levels of punctuality and high quality on-board product, serviced by our dedicated cabin crew that Jordan Aviation are renowned Worldwide for.

We are an IATA member and are also an IATA IOSA certified carrier

All seats will be sold through Fly Olympic, Jordan Aviation's GSA in Sweden, United Kingdom, Eritrea & Somalia for these routes.

Bookings can be made directly on the website: www.FlyOlympic.se as well as through the Amadeus & Sabre Global Distribution Systems as W2 / R5.

Travel Agents can contact Fly Olympic directly for an Agency Login.

Fly Olympic CEO Akis Kefala's stated ;

"In teaming up with Jordan Aviation, we believe we have an Airline partner that can provide our customers with the service and reliability that they deserve.

This is a dynamic market, but this alliance should prove to be the dominant force for flights to this region for many years to come."
